

Journey of the Waters

sacred pilgrimage of healing, transformation and renewal

Molas Lake, Colorado

September 7 - 16, 2011

This 400 mile Spiritual Pilgrimage to revitalizing springs, majestic mountains and sacred waters from New Mexico to Colorado is a healing journey, unprecedented in Western Culture - a 10 day ceremony of transformation that can change your life forever.

Internationally acclaimed teacher and Warrior Woman, Oh Shinnáh Fast Wolf, beseeched her elders and teachers for fifteen years before she received permission to share these sacred ceremonies of her people with the world. She knew that during these times of Prophecy and Earth Changes all the people of the Earth Mother would need Big Medicine to survive and thrive.

Oh Shinnáh passed on this healing Journey to Deep Arrow Woman and Bright Owl, who now lead the ceremonies. Since 1997 these women have dedicated their lives to preserving the Journey of the Waters and these powerful, ancient Medicine Ways.

Shed lifetimes of painful cellular memory. Restore balance and harmony in body, mind, soul and spirit. Free yourself of painful energy patterns and fixed realities that limit your natural potential. Find your true purpose. Live your passion for life. Re-member who you truly are.

$3100 (excludes transportation and meals) Register early! Limited to only 24 participants.
